March 2020

From the East:

Beware the Ides of March!

Actually, we do not have anything scheduled for March 15th, but we do have a busy month ahead of us. There is something happening on every Monday in March, and that extends to the Ides of April. We started with the officer's meeting on the second, and the stretch ends with the Official Visit of our District Deputy, RWB Matt Wand, at our April Stated meeting on the 13th. In between we have our Stated Meeting on the 9th, an EA degree on the 16th, our Sacred Geometry Discussion Group on the 23rd and an FC degree on the 30th.

Even though we do not currently have anything scheduled for April 20th, I hope that everyone will put the 18th and 19th into their calendars. The Amaranth Court will be installing Brother Barclay's wife, SuZahn, as Royal Matron on the 18th. On April 19th, we will be having our Annual Spring (formerly Easter) Breakfast to support the Transitional School.

Sincerely,

Scott Kennedy

From the South:

Greetings from the South!

It's been an exciting and busy year already with Cornerstone Lodge, with new candidates on the horizon and new members already showing great proficiency. In addition to that, we've had a couple of successful official visits to our welcoming and accommodating Lodges.

Busy already like bees in spring! I can already see this being a bright fulfilling year, looking forward to seeing what the rest of this year brings!

As we approach the last month of winter we already see the days getting longer and a little warmer, this progressiveness reminds me of how our craft is a continuation of the building of community, education, and selfless service. This ongoing effort is one of the many reasons I became and stay proud to be a Freemason.

"Without continual growth and progress, such words as improvement, achievement, and success have no meaning." -Bro Benjamin Franklin

From Job's Daughters:

Bethel one is going to be keeping busy for the month of March! We have our annual state initiation on March 7, which we hold in Salem with the Rainbow and DeMolay. We hope to see many new daughters initiated to our order as well as our sister and brother organizations. The weekend of March 20 will be our Grand Bethel Weekend where we will find out who will be our next Grand Bethel Honored Queen and Grand Bethel Senior Princess. Our own Audrey has put her name in for Grand Bethel Honored Queen, so send good thoughts her way! Thank you for all of your donations to our can and bottle drive to get us to Supreme Session! We made $245 in one donation thanks to a wonderful majority member from the 1950s. The Bethel stopped by her apartment and got to chat with her while we picked up her donation. We love hearing how Jobies has kept some traditions while still making new ones. We continue to accept donations to help get Bethel 1 to Supreme at the end of July. All our daughters would be attending Supreme for the first time and are excited that it will be for the 100th year of Job's Daughters. Have a happy and wonderful March everyone!

Sincerely,

Jazmine Pickard
