TRESTLEBOARD

November 2021

From the East:

Happy Halloween!!

With the pandemic still having spikes during this slow recovery, we have decide to not open the lodge again this year, but have definite plans to bring back a big celebration next year. By then we hope that things will be back to our new normal.

November is starting off with the possibility of a special meeting to hear a proficiency. The Officers' Meeting will be held following the special meeting. A TEAMS meeting will setup for those that will not be attending in person.

Elections!!!

As you have already been notified, our elections will be held at our Stated Meeting on November 8th. For anyone meeting in person, face coverings are mandatory as per State regulations for indoor meetings. Social distancing is also encouraged.

Past Masters and Widows should be receiving invitations to our annual dinner, which is also held traditionally in November.

We have much to be thankful for this year, and I hope that you all count the survival of the lodge during this historical time as one of the things you are thankful for.

Best wishes as we start the 2021 Holiday season!

Sincerely,

Scott Kennedy
