TRESTLEBOARD

October 2022

From the East:

Travel is fatal to prejudice, bigotry, and narrow-mindedness, and many of our people need it sorely on these accounts. Broad, wholesome, charitable views of men and things cannot be acquired by vegetating in one little corner of the earth all one's lifetime.

-Mark Twain

We, as Masons, are travelers both literally and figuratively. When I travel, there is that element of a chance encounter that can make it, and meeting new people, so exciting and rewarding.

Covid, illness and then having a new family member has slowed down my travels dramatically, but recently my partner and I took a trip to Long Beach, WA and we enjoyed the surf.

Returning home, we came through Astoria and decided to stop for Astoria's farmer's market. After roaming around, we decided to have a look at the historical Masonic Lodge that was nearby.

When we arrived, there was a bluegrass band, the street was closed off and the Masonic Brothers were handing out popcorn from a popcorn machine.

There was a group of folks who wanted a tour, and my wife wanted to see inside, so without introducing myself we were bundled into the tour.

Quinn Allan, the Senior Warden, gave a great tour and was able to discuss the tenets of our Craft with such joy and enthusiasm and intelligence. His history lessons on the building were amusing and helpful.

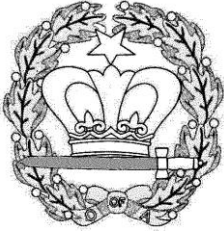

Afterwards I introduced myself, and I was buoyed by his love of Freemasonry and his dedication to the restoration of his historic Lodge in terms of building repairs, but also restoring enthusiasm and rebuilding the human potential as well.

My meeting with Brother Allan boosted my enthusiasm and gave me a reminder of the earnestness and love behind what we do, and I left our meeting happy and enriched.

I encourage all Master Masons to go visit other Lodges, and places, and see what the GAOTU has in store for you.

Fraternal Regards

David

From Job's Daughters – Bethel #1:

Wow September went by fast, and it is hard to believe October is already here! We hope you are all having a good start to the fall season!

We would like to invite you to our “Wash the Summer Away” Car Wash on October 8th from 12 to 4pm. There will be a flat fee of $12 per car with an indoor waiting area to keep warm where hot drinks will be available for $1. We would love to see as many of you as possible to support this fundraiser. The proceeds will help assist the daughters in traveling to statewide events, planning fun activities, and much more, to provide a well-rounded experience in Job's Daughters.

Also, we will be doing our annual flocking event once again so start thinking of who you would like to send a flock of flamingos to. The final details are still in the works, but we will let you know as we have more information. This is a great way to show someone that you are thinking of them!

Finally, we are trying to plan more fun events to promote the order and would love to partner with other masonic family members to grow all of our organizations together. If you or any one you know knows a young lady between the ages of 10 and 20 who could benefit from this organization, please feel free to reach out. Our Bethel is small, but we are mighty and would love to have more join us to create even more lasting friendships.

Jobie Love,

Bethel #1
